Scheduled to release: April 13th

Description: This is the first of a three-part interview with Dr. Karl Lehman, co-founder of the Immanuel Approach. Dr Lehman is a board-certified psychiatrist with thirty-five years and more than forty thousand hours of clinical experience.

He has worked tenaciously throughout his career to integrate faith-based emotional healing with insights provided by psychological and neurological research. Dr. Lehman is also deeply committed to his own growth and healing. His personal struggle to connect with the living presence of Jesus really has paved the way for millions to sense God with them consistently and more predictably.

It is my great joy to share with you Dr Lehman's passion and life's work that brings hope to the world every day.
