

Title: New Live Ministry Series (LMS) Session -- Kay: Dissociated Sexual Abuse Trauma, Internal Child Parts

August 22, 2022

Good news! The Kay: Dissociated Sexual Abuse Trauma, Internal Child Parts live ministry session is now available. (This session was one of the demonstrations I did for the 2019 Intermediate-Advanced seminar in Phoenix.)

Here's the short summary from the back of the DVD case: In this 2019 session, we work with an internal child part and Kay becomes consciously aware of sexual abuse memory pieces that were previously totally dissociated. Dr. Lehman helps Kay stay connected to Jesus through every aspect of the traumatic memories, and the close connection to Jesus clearly augments Kay's capacity, enabling her to stay connected in places where she had previously dissociated. This session includes a particularly interesting and profound piece, where Jesus places Himself between Kay and the perpetrator, "like He was on the cross," and shows her that although He did not stop the perpetrator, He protected her soul by absorbing the evil of the trauma into Himself. At the three-month follow-up interview, Kay reports that she can now recall the previously dissociated traumatic memories, she reports that the false negative cognitions (lies) and negative emotions associated with the trauma are much less powerful, and she reports that it continues to feel true that Jesus protected her soul through these traumatic events.

This new live ministry session can be purchased ($30), and then streamed and/or downloaded, from the following link: <https://immanuelapproach.pathwright.com/library/>

Also, I am making decisions regarding production options for the DVD version of this session. I need to know whether there are 12 people who want the DVD, 50 people who want the DVD, or 150 people who want the DVD. So let me know if you intend to purchase this new live ministry session and are one of those old-fashioned souls (like myself) who still prefers a DVD to a digital download.

Blessings,

Dr. Lehman/Karl
